

Missions

1. To train bachelors, masters and doctors in the fields of Crop Science, Plant Protection, Fruit and Vegetable Crop, Landscape, Agriculture with strong professional capacity and ethics and to meet the demand for high quality human resources for Vietnam and the region.

2. To conduct intensive research and cooperating with national, regional and international scientists in research fields of Crop Science, Plant Protection and advanced technology in agricultural production.

3. To invent, improve, apply technology and transfer advanced technology in crop production; to transfer technical or technological advances to agricultural practices for improving crop productivity and quality, economic efficiency and environmental protection in national and regional agriculture.

Vision

By the year 2025, the Faculty of Agronomy will become a regional training and research institution with a high quality of training and scientific research, to provide the society with excellent human resources for research, to apply and transfer advanced technologies in agriculture to meet the needs of society and international integration.

Educational Philosophy

The Educational Philosophy of the program is “Student-centered approach” in which students learn by inquiring.